Use it or lose
it.

“For to everyone who has,
more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.”
— Matthew 25:29

1. Read the Parable of the Talents (Matthew 25: 14-30). What is this parable teaching us?
2. Does this parable just apply to money or can it apply to other things? If so, what?
3. What “talents” do I have, and how am I investing them?
4. Given our passage today, and that Jesus calls us to live an intentional life, in what specific ways can I invest my life in God?

Feb 17th	Stop worrying and live for what God's revealing today.	“Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds in the sky; they do not sow or reap, they gather nothing into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you more important than they? Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life-span? Do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself.” — Matthew 6:25-27,34	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Explain what this passage means?2. Why should we not worry?3. Are you a worrier? If so, what things do you worry about? If not, how do you manage to be like this?4. Given our passage today, and that Jesus calls us to live an intentional life, what practical things can I do to increase my trust in him?

If you want to be great,
serve.

“The greatest among you must be your servant.
Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted.” — Matthew 23:11-12

1. Explain what these verses mean and how they apply to us?
2. What does it mean to be a servant in this context?
3. How did Jesus live up to these words?
4. Given our verses today, and that Jesus calls us to live an intentional life, how can I grow in servanthood and develop a servant heart?

March 3rd	Don't focus on difference but God's sovereignty.	"John said to him, 'Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us.' Jesus replied, 'Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us.'" — Mark 9:38-40	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Why do you think the disciples prevented the person from driving out the demon?2. Have you ever felt this way about another denomination; congregation, or Christian, or felt tempted to? Why?3. What is the good side of the group that you are tempted to exclude?4. Given our verses today, and that Jesus calls us to live an intentional life, how can I intentionally change my attitudes and actions? Do I need to apologise to anyone?

March 10th	Sacrifice brings life.	“No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” — John 15:13	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does it mean to “lay down your life” for a friend? 2. How did Jesus lay down his life for his friends? 3. Have you ever seen someone do this? How did it turn out? 4. Given our verse today, and that Jesus calls us to live an intentional life, in what way(s) can I intentionally lay down my life for others?
March 17th	In the end it’s all about love- Truth, Judgment, Mercy and Grace (in that order).	“Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” He said to him, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbour as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.” — Matthew 22:36-40	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does it mean to love the Lord with all your heart, soul, and mind? 2. What does it mean to love your neighbour as yourself? 3. Have you any examples of loving God and/or your neighbour in this way? 4. Given our passage today, and that Jesus calls us to live an intentional life, how can I intentionally love the Lord and my neighbours more?

You can fake
it but you won't make it.

“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name and in your name drive out demons and in your name perform many miracles?’ 23 Then I will tell them plainly, ‘I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!’ Matthew 7:21-23

1. How does this passage relate to Mark 9:38-40, which we heard about a month ago?
2. What are the marks of an authentic Christian in comparison to one that Jesus never knew?
3. In what ways am I faking it?
4. Given our passage today, and that Jesus calls us to live an intentional life, how can I intentionally become more authentic in my faith?
